

Warsaw-Miami, January 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

Over three days, February 9th – 11th, 2018 at the JW Marriott Hotel in Miami, Florida the Polish – American Leadership Summit: Polish Investment Zone Forum will take place (herein referred to as: the Forum).

#PALS is organized in cooperation with the Ministry of Development, the Polish Investment and Trade Agency - PFR Group, by the PMPG Polskie Media SA company, and by the European Centre for Innovative Public Ideas. The Forum is co-funded by PAIH, PFR as well as the Polish and American companies attending.

Among the speakers and panelists attending the Forum will be, among others, Ian Brzeziński, Marek Chodakiewicz and George Friedman. The plenary session will be concerned with the topic of strategic economic cooperation between the United States and Central Europe, taking into consideration Poland as the economic and political leader of the region. Over the three days of the Forum there are planned: two plenary sessions and nine sessions in business mixer format, as well as an award gala and adjoining events.

The Forum will be crowned with the 46th edition of the annual International Polonaise Ball organized by the Honorary Consul of the Republic of Poland in Miami, Lady Blanka Rosenstiel.

Part of the summit takes place at Mar-a-Lago – winter residence of President Donald Trump, who has been invited to attend the ball and all other conjoined events.

Details of the event and information concerning attending the conference are available at the website: <https://rtmx.pl/polish-american-leadership-summit> as well as in the enclosed message.

I cordially invite you to participate in this memorable event and to create a new chapter in Polish-American economic history and political relations.

Yours Faithfully,

Michał Maciej Lisiecki

President of the Organizing Committee
